MISSOULA--

Laurel High School senior Gary Burke has decided to attend the University of Montana on an athletic grant-in-aid. Burke is considered to be one of the state's top golf prospects, according to UM golf coach Mike Montgomery.

Burke placed in all four state high school golf meets he competed in, finishing fifth in 1974, third in 1975, second in 1976 and tied for second this spring.

As a high school sophomore, he placed third in the Montana State Amateur tournament.

A fine student, Burke intends to major in business administration at UM.
